Experience Tanach and enhance your Tanach learning through an ongoing series of fascinating and educational Tanach Tiyulim which will deepen your understanding of the prophets and crystallize your knowledge of Jewish History. We will explore diverse sites throughout Israel and learn the relevant texts – on site.

The Tanach Tiyulim are geared for adults and also ideal for active, young at heart grandparents. They do not require strenuous climbing or walking. In the following pages, please find the schedule of tiyulim for June and July 2009.

If you register for three tiyulim you can come on the fourth tiyul for free!!!!

You've never been to Herodion?

with Ezra Rosenfeld

Tuesday, June 30th

15 minutes from Jerusalem stands the amazing mountain palace and fortress of Herodion, undoubtedly one of the most impressive sites in the country. Join us as we examine its history and learn its story: in the time of Herod, during the Great Rebellion and during the Bar Kochva Rebellion. Get a glimpse of the wealth and power of Herod and see archeologist Ehud Netzer's latest finds including Herod's grave and a Roman theater.

Yehoshua's Entrance into Eretz Yisrael until the United Kingdom

How Israel's Geography Affects Events in the Tanach

with Menachem Liebttag

Sunday, July 5th 2009

We will study the topography and geography of Eretz Yisrael and thus better understand numerous events and stories in the books of Yehoshua, Shoftim and Shmuel.

Our tiyul will begin at the Armon HaNatziv promenade, proceed to Mitzpeh Yericho to better understand the entrance into Eretz Yisrael and conclude at Tel-a-ful (Biblical 'Givah'), where, from the porch of King Hussein's unfinished palace, we will study chapters from Shoftim, Shmuel and Yirmiyahu, among others.

The Northern Judges and their Stories

Tiyul to the Jezre'el Valley with the book of Shoftim in Hand

with Menachem Liebttag

Sunday, July 12th 2009

We will learn the stories of Devorah and Barak, Gidon and the Midianites on site in Emek Yizra'el - the Jezre'el Valley. Our tiyul will include a stop at Megidoo, the most impressive ancient tel in the country. From there we will travel northeast to understand the topography and geography of two shoftim - Devora and Gidon.

Hevron - The City of Jewish Activism

From Avraham Avinu until the 20th Century

with Ezra Rosenfeld
Sunday, July 19th

Join us as we explore the ancient city of Hevron, visiting the ancient and the modern Jewish sites. See the wall which was already an archeological site when Avraham took Yitzchak for a "Shabbat walk" and understand the Meara and the building above it. Share the dilemma posed by the "burial place" of Ruth and Yishai, "experience" the events of 1929 and understand the role which Hevron played throughout various critical junctures in Jewish history.

In the Footsteps of Yirmiyahu

with Menachem Liebtog
Tuesday, July 28th 2009

Join us a few days before Tisha B'Av as we study the book of Yirmiyahu at the very same places where the prophet himself lived and mingled with his people.

We will study the prophecies of Yirmiyahu at Anatot, his 'hometown', at Ein Fuar in Wadi Kelt - where he was commanded to hide his 'sash', from the hills overlooking the Temple Mount and from the ancient 'downtown' of Jerusalem in Gay ben Hinom.

The geography will help us understand the deeper meaning of Yirmiyahu's message both then and today.

9 AM - 4:30 PM

180 shekels

Sign up for three tiyulim and get the fourth tiyul free!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
